

Friends

by Bartosz Urban

They are not people on the internet,

Snapchat, Instagram or Facebook either.

Doesn't matter how many you have friended.

How many you text,

Message or 'snap',

They are not friends,

The people you don't see face to face.

Friends,

Are people you meet every day,

Express emotions,

Not emojis.

Friends are people you

See, hear and talk to.

They are people you hang around with,

The people that stand up

For you in need.

Those are friends.
